

The Dred Scott Heritage Foundation and the Friends of Greenwood Cemetery Association Invite the Community to attend
The Dedication of Harriet's Hill

The community is invited to attend The Dedication of Harriet's Hill, honoring a true civil rights pioneer and acknowledging the burial place of Harriet Scott, wife of Dred Scott and co-plaintiff in the Dred Scott Decision of 1857.

May 26, 2009 at 10:00 a.m. on the occasion of the 152nd anniversary of their freedom at Greenwood Cemetery, 6571 St. Louis Avenue (down from St. Peters Cemetery off Lucas and Hunt Aves.)

With participation by the band and students from the Normandy Senior High School and in cooperation with the office of Congressman Lacy Clay, the unveiling of a new headstone for Mrs. Scott at a very special location, excerpts of the play, Harriet and the New Look of Greenwood Cemetery thanks to many special friends, it will be a wonderful celebration.

The event is free to the public. For more information visit www.thedredscottfoundation.org and www.greenwoodsnynergy.com